ACS Releases New Course- Building Renovation

ACS Distance Education have just written and released a new 100-hour course- Building Renovation.

This course would be great for anyone who wants to work on their own home, gain more skills for a handy-person business, building manager or even flip a house for profit and a new income opportunity.

Building renovation projects may be large or small, costly or expensive, complex or simple. All such projects should be carefully considered with respect to these issues before anything is ever done. This course will provide you with practical and theoretical experience in renovating buildings.

This course covers the following 10 lessons:

- Introduction to Building Renovation Projects
- Core Structural and Site Works.
- Replacing/Repairing Roofs and Floors
- Doors, Windows and walls
- Plastering
- Carpentry Reno
- Painting
- Plumbing Basics
- Electrical Basics
- Renovating a Room

Upon completion of this course, you would be awarded a Statement of Attainment from ACS Distance Education, or you could add it to a module in one of our qualifications, a Certificate, Diploma or Associate Diploma.
